

LIBRARY LOGIN FORM

Introduction:

Purpose:

To provide secure access for library users and members, library-login form is a part of the library management.

Scope:

- User using user id and password
- Role based access control
- Password reset
- Session management
- Error management

Definition:

- UID: user id
- UI: user interface
- RBAC: role-based access control

References:

- IEEE SRS Standard

Overall Description:

- Product perspective: a web-based application accessed for library management system for the user and member
- Product Function: -login with user id password, Role-based access, password reset with email and OTP, logout after 15mints of inactivity
- User characters: user/member basic knowledge about system, librarian: knowledge about computer
- Constraints: web-based application, it allows limited number of users

Functional Requirements:

- System should allow user to login with id and password
- System should allow role-based access for librarian and members
- System should allow to reset password with OTP

Non-Functional Requirements:

- Security: login info must be encrypted
- Performance: system should perform as per user request
- Usability & reliability: system interface must be user-friendly

External Requirements:

- User information
- Hardware information
- Software information
- Communication information